Variable Lab

1. Open eclipse, create a new java project and a new class named Variable.java
2. In your main method, create 4 unique integer variable types and 4 unique double variables types
3. Try printing the value of the variable without hardcoding the number
4. Click the green arrow to run the program